Note: If you decide at the last minute to stay over Sunday, let us know by 1 pm on Sunday. Otherwise, you may have to spruce your own room and get clean towels from the front desk on your own. Also, in order to stay Thursday or Sunday, you have to have been a part of the SCONY weekend. The two days were added to the weekend to accommodate more time for setting up, packing up and extra discipline that didn't get completed during the activities of the weekend. This extra time also allows SCONY management to get some rest. No one outside our group will be able to use the resort from Thursday to Sunday. The extra time using the resort will come at a small additional cost to the regular Thursday and Sunday rate.

I have read the limits and objectives of the party (see website for objectives), and I understand that payment is non-refundable if the weekend does not sell out. I understand there are no refunds for cancellations less than ten days before the event.
